3. BACKGROUND TO THE PROMOTION OF ACCESS TO AND THE PROTECTION OF INFORMATION ACTS

The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 (the “Act”) was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right in terms of section 32 of the Bill of Rights contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa 108 of 1996 (the “Constitution”) of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.

Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and/or regulatory requirements, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the relevant procedure to be adopted when requesting information from a public or a private body.

POPIA was assented to on 26 November 2013. The purpose of POPIA is to give effect to section 14 of the Constitution, being the constitutional right to privacy by protecting Personal Information and regulating the free flow and Processing of Personal Information. POPIA sets minimum conditions which all Responsible Parties must comply with so as to ensure that Personal Information is respected and protected.

In terms of section 51 of the Public Access to Information Act, all Private Bodies are required to compile an Information Manual (“PAIA Manual”). This Manual will be updated from time to time, as and when required.

4. DEFINITIONS

The following words shall bear the same meaning in PAIA and POPIA as follows:

- 4.1 “Consent” means a voluntary, specific and informed expression of will in terms of which a Data Subject agrees to the processing of Personal Information relating to him or her;
- 4.2 “Data Subject” or “DS” means the person to whom personal information relates;
- 4.3 “Direct Marketing” means approaching a Data subject personally for the purpose of selling them a product or service;
- 4.4 “Applicability” means this manual only applies to those entities carrying on a trade or business and does not relate to our dormant companies. A full list of all the dormant companies within the Group is available on request from our Deputy Information Officer.

- 4.11.3 merging, linking, as well as blocking, degradation, erasure or destruction of information;

4.12“Public body” means any department or state or administration in the national, provincial or local sphere of government or functionary exercising public power

4.13“Responsible Party” or “RP” means a public or private body or any other person which, alone or in conjunction with others, determines the purpose of and means for processing Personal Information.

5. PURPOSE FOR WHICH INFORMATION IS REQUIRED

5.1 The Act provides that a person may only request information in terms thereof if that information is required for the exercise or protection of a right.

5.2 Further, POPIA provides that a Data Subject may, upon proof of identity, request the Responsible party to confirm, free of charge, all the information it holds about the Data Subject and may request access to such information, including information about the identity of third parties who have or have had access to such information. POPIA further provides that where the Data Subject is required to pay a fee for services provided to him/her/it, the Responsible Party:

- Must provide the Data Subject with a written estimate of the payable amount before providing the service
- May require that the requestor pay a deposit for all or part of the fee

6. CATEGORIES OF REQUESTORS

6.1 The capacity under which a Requester requests documentation/ information will determine the category he or she falls in. Please note that the Requester category has a bearing on the conditions of access to the information.

6.2 Requesters have been classified into four categories:

- 6.2.1 A Personal Requester: requests information about himself/herself/itself.
- 6.2.2 A Representative Requester: requests information relating to and on behalf of someone else.
- 6.2.3 A Third Party Requester: requests information about another person.
- 6.2.4 A Public Body: requests information in the public interest.

7. HOW TO REQUEST ACCESS TO RECORDS HELD BY THE RESPONSIBLE PARTY

Request for access to records held must be made on Request Form A – Attached as Annexure A hereto

When a record is requested, the following will apply:

7.1 Access to Record of Private Body Request Form (attached to this manual).

- 7.1.1 On the Request Form all details must be completed, including the right the requester wants to protect by requesting the information.
  - 7.1.2 If the Requester is acting on behalf of someone else (e.g. an attorney acting on behalf of a client), the signature of the other person (i.e. the client) must appear on the form and the company shall have the right to verify that the person on whose behalf the request is being made, did indeed authorize such request.
  - 7.1.3 The Requester must state in which form (inspection of copy, paper copy, electronic copy, transcript, etc.) s/he wants to access the information.
  - 7.1.4 If the record is part of another record, the Requester will only be granted access to that part of the record that pertains to the information s/he wants or is entitled to, and not the rest of the record.
- 7.2 Fees may be payable. These fees are prescribed by law, and can change from time to time. The fee list attached hereto as Annexure B
- 7.3 All requests will be evaluated against the provisions of the Act. The Act allows the Information Officer to refuse access on grounds stipulated in the Act.
- 7.4 The company is obliged under the Act to respond to the request for access to information held by it within 30 days of receipt of the request. The Act provides for other processes that can be followed by a Requester should his/her request under the Act be denied.
- 7.5 Proof of identity is required to authenticate the request and the Requester. In view hereof, a Requester will, in addition to Form A, be required to submit acceptable proof of identity such as a certified copy of their Identity Document or other legal form of identification.
- 7.6 Information will not be furnished unless a person clearly provides sufficient particulars to enable the institution to identify the right the Requester is seeking to protect as well as an explanation of why the requested information is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

8. VOLUNTARY DISCLOSURE

- 8.1 The following information is available to the public and does not require an application for access under the Act:
- 8.1.1 Any information contained in any publicly accessible websites operated by the company,
  - 8.1.2 Any information published by the company in any books, magazines, brochures or other material form that has been made available to the public by the company;
- 8.2 The information referred to above may include, without limitation, the following:
